

UNITED,

Hopeful and Filled With Enthusiasm.

Summit County Democrats Lined Up For a Sturdy Battle.

Their Resolutions Complimented by a Visiting Pennsylvanian.

Glimpse at the Candidates and a Review of the Contests For Representative.

The convention of Summit county Democrats was concluded Saturday evening in the same harmonious and enthusiastic manner in which business was conducted throughout the day. It will go down in history as one of the most satisfactory and dignified conventions Summit county Democrats have ever held, everything done meeting with the approval of all in attendance. While there were contests for the nominations for Representative they were not conducted with bitter or selfish rivalry, leaving no reasonable cause for dissatisfaction over the result. These were the only contests, all other nominations being made by acclamation.

At first the convention balloted for all four candidates—John A. Wintrobe and ex-Representative Chas. W. Kempel, Akron; ex-Representative C. N. Russell, Cuyahoga Falls, and J. W. Frank, Fairlawn—but it was found impracticable to continue in this way, as the convention desired to select one candidate from Akron and the other from one of the country districts. After two ballots had been taken without result, the convention began voting for the Akron candidates. On the first ballot Messrs. Wintrobe and Kempel each received 41 votes, but in the second Mr. Wintrobe was given 46 and Mr. Kempel 35, the former being nominated. In selecting a candidate from the country districts, Mr. Russell was named on the first ballot. He received 41 1-2 votes and Mr. Frank 35 1-2.

This ended the work of the convention, and it was announced that the committeemen would meet in Akron Saturday, Sept. 14, to organize the County Executive committee. Attorney W. E. Snyder is talked of as successor to Chairman S. G. Rogers.

Before the convention adjourned Attorney M. J. Conry, of Scranton, Pa., who was here visiting Mr. John T. Spellman, was called upon for remarks. He admitted that he came from a state in which the Democrats are usually defeated by a majority of 300,000 or so, and said that he had enjoyed himself in observing the harmony existing among Summit County Democrats, and the splendid manner in which their convention was conducted. "More particularly," he said, "do I compliment you upon the resolutions you have adopted. They were carefully and honestly prepared, taking a positive stand on principles of true Democracy and denouncing in a courageous manner the inconsistencies and selfishness of the present administration. I most heartily endorse every stand taken in them. What the Democrats of this county should be most careful of is loyalty to the principles of true Democracy, as founded by Jefferson and Jackson and carried forward by that peerless American and representative of the common people, Wm. Jennings Bryan. The essence of Democracy, is justice, and its object, progress. If these are established beyond a doubt and maintained this Nation will shine as the richest jewel in the diadem of nations."

The remarks of Mr. Conry were applauded vigorously, and many persons invited him to return to Akron later in the fall and deliver an address.

GLIMPSE AT CANDIDATES.

The candidates selected by the convention will receive the united support of the Summit county Democracy. Each, when nominated, arose and thanked the convention for its confidence and the honor conferred, and promised to do his best to obtain the election and serve the people well. After the convention there was much handshaking with the candidates, all of whom were promised vigorous support. Following is a brief glimpse at the various candidates:

John A. Wintrobe, selected from the city as one of the candidates for Representative, is one of the best known young men in Akron. He has been prominently identified with all the local labor organizations—not as an extremist or agitator, but representative of conservative and reasonable methods of obtaining harmony between labor and capital in a manner conserving the best interests of both. He was born Nov. 21, 1869, at West Middleburg, O., his parents being Jacob J. and Phoebe Wintrobe. His education was obtained at the Common schools at West Middleburg, after which he studied pharmacy for a year. Leaving Middleburg he went to Bellefontaine, where he learned the printing trade. From Bellefontaine he went to Toledo; from there he went to Lima, and later worked in Indianapolis. Coming to Akron in 1891, he has lived here ever since, having been employed on the daily newspapers. At present he is a Linotype operator with the Democrat. Since coming to Akron, Mr. Wintrobe has at various times been chairman of the Executive committee of the Typographical union; president of the Central Labor Union for seven terms, and is at present organizer for the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Wintrobe was married April 27, 1890 to Miss Estelle Tucker, of Spring Hills, O., and has two children. Their home is at 111 N. Walnut st.

Ex-Representative C. N. Russell, now Mayor of Cuyahoga Falls, whom the Democrats nominated at their convention Saturday to make a second run for Representative, will enter the race with abundant strength. Popular while representing his constituency in the Legislature during the term of '98, he has continued to grow in popularity, as attested by his selection as Mayor of his home town. Mayor Russell is 45 years old and with his wife lives in a cozy home in Harrison st., the Falls. He was born at Council Bluffs, Ia., and there received his earlier education. Leaving there he came to Ravenna, where for five years he was a deputy to the sheriff of Portage county. He came to Cuyahoga Falls in 1892, and was elected Mayor of the village in the spring of 1900. Mayor Russell was admitted to the Summit County Bar four years ago.

Dr. F. J. Bauer, of Mogadore, although a resident of that village for 24 years, has lived in Summit county but 16 years. During his earlier residence in the town he lived on the Portage county side. Now he is on the Summit county side, and is even now representing that part of the town in the village council. Dr. Bauer is 47 years of age. He was born at Surfside, Portage county, and is a son of Jacob and Christiana Bauer. His earlier education was obtained in the Common schools, after which his medical training was received at the Ohio Medical College, Cincinnati, and the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Cleveland. He has been a life-long Democrat, and has never before aspired to a county office. From '86 to '89 he held the office of Justice of the Peace at Mogadore. He is married and has two children.

Attorney S. G. Rogers, nominated for County Prosecutor, needs no introduction to Akron or Summit county people. None of Akron's young attorneys are known better than he, and his record as a well trained and vigorous lawyer is one of which he may well feel proud. Mr. Rogers has served one term as County Prosecutor, and his friends are predicting that he will surely serve another. He has also served a term as City Prosecutor, and was among the first Mayor's clerks ever appointed in Akron. For the past year he has been chairman of the Executive committee of Summit county's Democracy, and during the campaign of last fall did splendid work. Under his direction perfect harmony has existed in the ranks, and all are ready to enter the present fight united and hopeful of winning.

Mr. T. D. Paul, nominated for County Surveyor, will enter the race with splendid chances for winning. He is one of the best known men in Akron, and counts his friends throughout the county by the hundreds. A practical surveyor, with many years' experience, he will, if elected, fill the office in a competent, satisfactory manner. Mr. Paul has served two terms as member of the Akron City Council, and established a splendid record as an advocate of economy and systematic methods in transacting public business.

By the hearty manner in which the Democrats of the county united in selecting John Spellman, of Northampton township, as their candidate for Inferiary director is attested his popularity. He is a farmer, well known and respected in the community in which he lives, and if elected will do his best to perform the duties of the office in a manner satisfactory to the people.

Charles A. Barnes, of Copley, nominated for County Commissioner, is well known throughout the entire county, and will receive the united support of the Summit county Democracy in his race for the position. It is claimed for him that he is well equipped with knowledge adaptable to the office of County Commissioner, and that he is a man who always has the courage of his convictions.

TEXT

Of Resolutions Adopted by Democratic Convention.

The resolutions of the convention, reported by the committee consisting of Judge C. R. Grant, Rev. Geo. Harter and ex-Postmaster W. W. Lewis, the latter of Hudson, were enthusiastically adopted as follows:

The Democrats of Summit county, Ohio, in convention met, declare:

1. We ratify and endorse the Kansas City platform of 1900, and every part of it; and we pledge our votes and our efforts to secure the triumph of the principles therein enunciated, believing that thus, and thus only, can the lasting and equal welfare of the people be subserved.

2. We have an abiding belief in the derstood by men of ordinary intelligence, and, in Ohio, by a state administration which has done nothing for the people worthy of its hire.

3. We believe that the ballot, intelligently and incorruptly cast, furnishes an adequate remedy for every political or economic evil, and we commend it to all who are justly complaining of industrial ills and vicious systems of trade, as their only safeguard and reliance.

4. We commend to all voters the platform adopted by the late Democratic state convention of Ohio, and particularly that part of it which stands for a more equitable distribution of the burdens of taxation; and we denounce the refusal of the Republican taxing officers of the state to rectify their present practice of protecting favored interests from bearing their share of public imposts as a masterpiece of injustice and knavery.

7. We expressly and especially instruct and require the legislative nominees of this convention, in the event of their election, to secure to the City of Akron a reformed system of administration, in place of one which for inefficiency, wastefulness and general uselessness, is—we believe—without its fellow in the history of municipal misgovernment: And we demand that such reform shall restore to the people of Akron their proper voice in selecting their public servants and in requiring from the latter a strict account of how they have discharged their trust, instead of leaving them, as at present, accountable only to an irresponsible bossism.

8. We favor a rigid economy in all public expenditures, and to that end we pledge the legislative nominees of this convention, in the event of their election, to support any measure looking to the reduction of the compensation of county officials to a fair and just basis.

9. We demand the passage of law in Ohio making the recovery of costs in magistrates' courts entirely independent of the event of the suit, and thus relieving the unfortunate debtor from the imposition of burdens in addition to what he owes, and which often amounts, in common practice, to oppression.

10. We believe that the canal system of Ohio belongs to the people thereof, and that upon the discontinuance of any part of it, the avails and benefits of the same should be secured to them in such way as will give them the largest and most direct enjoyment of the property so abandoned.

11. We pledge our loyal support to

St. Vitus's

Dance, or chorea, is one of the most pitiable afflictions humanity is called on to endure. That this disease can be cured, however, is proven by the fact that it has been cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The tranquilizing effect upon the nerves exercised by this remarkable medicine is witnessed to by thousands who have found healing and strength in its use. It not only cures womanly diseases, but it promotes the health of the whole body. It is a nerve-feeding, strength-giving, sleep-inducing medicine. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol and is entirely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. It cannot disagree with the weakest or most delicate constitution.

"When our daughter Lizzie had St. Vitus's dance, I happened to get one of your small books and read it," writes Henry L. Miller, Esq., of 205 North 10th St., Burlington, Iowa. "Among other things I found that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cured patients suffering from that trouble, so I went out and got a bottle. She was very bad at that time and could hardly talk. When I read about your medicine in that small book, I said to myself, with the help of God and that medicine we can cure our daughter. We did so. Four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' cured her, and I did not have to take her to the doctor any more. She is well, thank God and the 'Favorite Prescription' for it."

THE DAILY GRIND

DESTROYS BRAIN CELLS AND CONSUMES NERVEFORCE AT AN ENORMOUS RATE.

Many Cut off in Early Manhood and Womanhood on Account of Neglecting to Keep Vitality on the Highwater Mark.

In the factories and workshops, at the offices and stores—yes, and in the homes, too, people are being ground to death by the monotonous wear and tear of increasing toll. Day after day, week in and week out, it is the same story of work and labor—of excessive toil and struggle without opportunity of recreation. In the summer, above all other times, the burden is heavy to bear, and many a victim falls by the way overcome by nervous exhaustion, heart failure and physical decline.

It is useless to talk of rest in the cooling breezes of some lake or ocean resort. The world's work must be done—the toll must be paid. There is one method of replacing wasted nerve cells and building up the worn-out system, and that is by using Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills after each meal. They give vigor and tone to the system and prevent exhaustion and prostration—they befriend working people by making them strong and well, giving new hope, new confidence and stronger determination to succeed. The wonderful medicinal power of this great medicine is demonstrated in thousands of cases where the wasting process has been stopped and health restored by its use.

Mrs. K. Killgrew of No. 538 Exchange st., Akron, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are a splendid nerve tonic. I felt badly, slept poorly, was weak, nervous and lacked appetite. I was given the Nerve Pills that Lamparter, druggist, on South Howard st., introduced and they acted finely with me. I sleep well, eat well, feel strong again and the nerves are steady. I am glad to recommend it to others as a reliable and sure medicine in such troubles."

DEMOCRATS.

Here Are Some Active Workers.

Delegates and Committeemen of Precincts Outside of Akron.

The list of delegates and committeemen chosen in different County precincts as reported at Saturday's Democratic County convention were as follows:

Norton, west precinct—Delegates—J. F. Reimer, W. F. Haupt; commit-patriotism, unselfishness, common sense and great qualities of leadership of William J. Bryan, and still confidently look to him as the vindicator of popular rights.

3. We refuse to recognize as entitled to the control of the Democratic organization men who deserted their colors in the hour of their party's sorest need, and whose open opposition to their ticket is responsible for our defeat in 1896; and we submit that they should not ask for, or be entrusted with, party leadership as a reward for their disloyalty—while still unrepentant.

4. We condemn the Republican party of today, as embodying an executive which is controlled by, and which furnishes protection and immunity to, vicious economic policies and unlawful combinations, inimical to the interests of the people at large; a Congress which in return for offices placed at the disposal of its members, has abdicated its constitutional duties of legislation, and a judiciary either unable or unwilling to define the gravest questions of the status of our recent conquests in language that can be un-

RICHES

For a Golf Ball Inventor.

Vast Number of Haskell Balls Made

Is Piling Up Royalties In Fancy Figures.

Talk of Mr. H. C. Corson's Successor.

It is said that the royalties paid the inventor of the Haskell golf ball amount to not less than $20,000 a year and probably a great deal more than that. The Goodrich Co. can scarcely keep up with its orders on these balls though it started in the season with a stock on hand of 15,000 dozen. The factory will be making the balls on a still larger scale all through the coming winter in preparation for next season.

In this connection it is very important that a process for making over the Haskell balls has been discovered and that badly used up balls are worth about $2.50 per dozen. The retail price is $6 per dozen as against $3.50 and $4.00 per dozen charged for other balls.

Although Vice President H. C. Corson's resignation from the active management of the B. F. Goodrich Co. will not take effect until January, there is already considerable gossip in rubber circles as to his successor. It is said that Supt. B. G. Work is likely to be given the place. Mr. Work is one of the hardest working men in the rubber business in Akron.

Akron men have been among the leaders in the new era of the rubber-making industry, where inventions have been so numerous and varied in nature, and methods of manufacture have changed so rapidly and completely in the last year, that a record was made that seems almost beyond belief. New articles have been placed on the market by Akron companies, patents in great numbers for new articles and improvements on old have rewarded the toil and thought of Akron strugglers, and this city has been the seat of a progressive movement in the rubber-making industry which has made the local companies almost free from the danger that comes from competition.

Machinery, which field has been the one in which the latest drive was made, has made many Akron rubber men famous in their trade and necessary to the companies by which they are employed. Labor and time saving devices, automatic arrangements to do heavy lifting—all these things have been introduced in Akron by the local shops, independently of what other people or other shops might be doing.

This development of the young man—for it has been the young man, who has made most of these long strides for himself and business—indicates what an excellent field rubber is for an ambitious youth, and how excellent a place is Akron as a starting point toward success in life.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old-fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow.
